

WHEREAS; the state of Wisconsin acknowledges the many physical and mental health benefits of breastfeeding for babies and their mothers and promotes inclusive support for every family, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, education level, socioeconomic status, or any other factor that makes every family and community unique; and

WHEREAS; breastfeeding is a public health imperative and proven primary prevention strategy, which is why breastfeeding exclusively for at least the first six months of a child's life when feasible is recommended by the American Academy of Pediatrics to optimize infant health, growth, and development; and

WHEREAS; the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS), local health departments, and Tribal organizations throughout Wisconsin promote and support breastfeeding as the optimal method of infant feeding through nutrition programs such as the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children; and

WHEREAS; we must continue working to reduce barriers and address discrimination in communities, healthcare systems, and employment settings to ensure that mothers and families who choose to breastfeed their child have the opportunity and support to do so; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin applauds breastfeeding advocates and health organizations across the state working to build individual, family, and community support for breastfeeding and joins them, along with DHS, in celebrating breastfeeding, promoting awareness of its benefits, and ensuring equitable access and opportunity for all babies and parents, now and in the future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim August 2023 as

NATIONAL BREASTFEEDING MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 21st day of July 2023.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State
